Foreword

He that governs well leads the blind
But he that teaches gives them eyes.

To preserve a record of these moments and the countless other experiences of you and your classmates, this annual strives to capture the "eyes" and "mind" of the scholarship, the leadership, the activities, and the character of EHS.

A Day at E.H.S.

Two typical students enter EHS for another day of work and fun.

"Well, good morning."

The "stampede" has begun as students pass to their classes.

Whether you browse or talk, the library is a favorite place of many students.

"Repeat after me, I like Spanish."

A Day at E.H.S.

Every student works earnestly in the study hall--until the teacher leaves.

"Let's do this typing with NO mistakes."

The last bell rings and to students and teachers alike it is a very joyous moment. Students rush to lockers or desks to find their homework assignments. Coats are sought and found. "Good

"Oh no, do I have to tear it out again?"

nights" and "See yous" are said and the doors close. The day at EHS is complete--what was learned from it depended upon you, the student.

"Planning a dream house, or is it a barn?" remarkshop boys.

Students hurry home only to return at night for basketball games, plays, music, and other endless activities at EHS.

We Dedicate This 1966 Redman to Our Parents

Dear Mom and Dad,

All dressed up, but frightened and shaking, I walked up the steps of the high school four years ago last September, doubting that I should ever attain the sophistication of a senior. Now, four years later, I am ready to graduate. I know a great part of this Miracle has come about through your unselfishness, guidance, and patience.

You went without many things so I could have enjoyment regardless of your plans, and if I haven't seemed grateful in the past, it isn't because I haven't appreciated your time and work; but only because I haven't realized until now all you have done.

We are dedicating with the deepest love and esteem, our REDMAN year-book to you to show, in a small way, our appreciation for all you have done and the time you have so generously given. Thanks, Mom and Dad.

Love,

Your Graduate

At Long Last . . . The Cherished Diplomas.

Graduation preparations began the week of May 16 when all seniors were measured for caps and gowns. The days rapidly passed as the seniors busily took last-minute tests, decorated the stage, ordered flowers, and practiced for commencement. On May 22 Rev. Elmer Otte spoke to the seniors at the baccalaureate service. Finally the long-awaited night arrived, May 26, Dr. Stanley Sundet, SDSU, delivered an inspiring commencement address. At the close of the ceremony thirty-seven graduating seniors walked down the aisle as EHS alumni. They realized that the challenge of today is their task for tomorrow...

To be on the brink of something great,
yet still floundering.
To be finishing, yet only beginning.
To be trained, yet so unprepared.
To be educated, yet so empty of knowledge.

To want, yet know not what to want.
To feel secure, yet so insecure.
To form a smile, yet hold back a tear.
To think, and think, and think...
Oh, to be a senior.

But we're always the last to be dismissed.

Football Lines Up to Begin Another Busy Year

Football is many things. To the players it is ACTION and TENSION and always the thought of winning. To the fans it's frozen noses and toes, thrills that come with a triumph. To the coaches it's worry, despondency or expectation. To the people in the concession stands there is one thought--to make sure the hot dog is "hot" when a customer receives it. Whatever the football season means to you, EHS has provided it.

Dave Beckman and Don Bruinsma are co-captains. The Redman will feel their loss next year as both Dave and Don are graduating.

We reached second in the Hamlin-Moraine Conference. The boys fought with vim and vigor. Don Bruinsma was awarded offensive and defensive All-Conference, Dave Lee, defensive, Don Borstad, center, offensive.

The newly organized Pep Club added enthusiasm and "noise" to the football and basketball season. Officers headed a pen-selling campaign to raise money for a REDMAN banner. OFFICERS--Joan Foster, pres.; Julie Holter, vice-pres.; Kathy Linneman, sec.; Connie Moeller, treas.

Teams Show Promise

The team was a young team this year that suffered some close decisions. They were runner-up in the district giving Hayti a real battle. Next year should be a good season for the Redmen.

A Momentous Homecoming for 1965 . . .

Estelline's annual homecoming activities began on Thursday, Oct. 14. A program sponsored by the student council was presented by the classes and clubs to an eager audience. At last the time came for the coronation of a new chief and a new princess. By the light of eight torch bearers the candidates were brought forward and introduced. The auditorium became silent as everyone leaned forward to see Russ Kuehn crowned Big Chief and Sandy Schutte crowned Princess. Marilyn Hector sang "Indian Love Call" to climax the coronation activities. A pep rally followed immediately. The "A" cheerleaders led a snake dance to the dummy, which represented Hayti, and that desire to win was aroused in everyone as the dummy burned brightly and the pep band played our school song.

Oct. 15 was a sunny, windy day that was hectic for all students as they worked on last-minute preparations for the parade. The floats, finished just in the nick of time, were paraded through town. At sundown the time came for the Redmen to "beat the Redbirds!" The cheerleaders kept the spirit going and the boys tried and tried again, but the Redbirds flew past Estelline in a crushing defeat. A dance followed with music furnished by the Outsiders. Soon, Homecoming 1965 was over, but bright memories were left to keep it alive forever.

TORCHBEARERS--K. Weinrich, C. Moeller, B. Miller, J. Holter, D. Doop, Dan Selken, A. Kangas, D. IntVeld.

Toward New Horizons . . .

The Future Homemakers of America, with Linda Linneman as president, had a very active year. The donations of favors to the Dempster and Estelline Rest Homes, the decoration of the study hall at Christmas and at Easter time, the remembrances of people in Redfield with gifts and letters, sponsors of the annual Sweetheart Ball, and Daddy Date Night, were some of the many and varied activities of FHA this year.

Linda Linneman was crowned Miss FHA Daddy Date Nite.

The style show was a smashing success.

There's more To FHA than a meeting.

Sweetheart Ball for 1966 . . .

On February 12, the Future Homemakers of America sponsored the annual Sweetheart Ball. The arena was decked with red and white streamers and paper hearts. As the students entered, each voted for a king and queen who would be crowned later in the evening.

And some of us didn't dance...

The evening was climaxed when last year's sweetheart queen, Jeanne Lentz, crowned Patty Pech and Mike Linneman to reign as the 1966 Sweetheart Queen and King.

Practice and Patience

Estelline High School was represented in the Region III music contest in Watertown by several instrumental and vocal groups and various instrumental and vocal soloists.

Marilyn Hector, soprano soloist, was selected to sing in the grand concert. She also received a superior rating. This was her fourth year to enter. Other soloists receiving superior ratings were Rita Morris, contralto, Dave Beckman and Steve Rasmussen, bass, and Ron Borstad, baritone. Sharon Hutt, soprano, and Brenda Tillgren, contralto, received excellent ratings.

The boys' vocal and the mixed vocal received excellent ratings.

Two of those receiving superior ratings on instrumental solos were Betty Wales, b flat clarinet, and Jay Foster, tympani. Betty and Jay were also selected to attend All-State band, an honor that only two other E. H. S. students have been given. Susan Wales, baritone horn, also received a superior.

The End Is but the Beginning . . .

Dary J. Barnes

Hi Cheryl, (PPP)

The best of luck to a swell classmate. Have fun in your last year at F.H.S. and in the future don't be too
hard on the boys,
especially C.W.P.O.P.
A classmate

Cherry

Cheryl, Best of luck in your future
Dave & Linda & I hope you have a good time this year & be real sweet gal.

Cheryl,
Best of luck in your last year of school.
Be good but have a lot of fun.
a classmate Diana

Cheryl, Best of luck to a swell girl.
Did you have fun at North Carolina?
Karen

Cheryl,
Good luck
in your future years. Have fun, but take it easy.

Cheryl, Lotsa luck in your future in whatever you do. Don't forget the fun times
we've had in F.H.S.
Be good this summer
and don't do anything I wouldn't. See you next year as a mighty senior.
Linda D.

Cheryl,
Maybe if you're real lucky we'll be seeing the two again with you & we can have some more of our talks. See how much that's changed. Bye. Don't forget me the cat whisperer.

Cheryl,
Good luck in your future.
Have fun,
but take it easy.

Cheryl,
Good luck in your future years.
This last year is important.
Have fun!
Ruthie

Cheryl,
Best of Luck
Next year at E.H.S.
+ the years that follow! Remember our Home Ec Class.

Cheryl,
Good luck in your senior year.
Have fun, too!

Cheryl
Good luck study and be good
"Love"

Hi Cheryl I'm your lover boy

Cheryl
Good luck to a nice kid and a nice kid
this year don't stay late when we have our prom.
Be good
Karen

Cheryl Lots of luck to another one of those great seniors Charlie

~~Love ya~~ RICH S.

Cheryl,
Thanks for helping pass the time on
wed. or sat. nites
while I was at work!
Let's make this a year
+ class to be proud of.
Keep smiling!
Zeta

Cheryl,
Lots of luck to a real great girl in all the coming years.
Take it easy on the boys!
Linda B.

Cheryl,
Good luck in your last year in E.H.S.
Be good
Kend.

Cheryl,
I really love
you. I hope you love me too.
I hope you are happy.
I hope you are healthy.
I hope you are successful.
I hope you are everything.
I love you.
Steve

Cheryl,
Good luck to a real sweet girl. Keep thinking your best and to succeed.
Keep and to succeed.
You're go sky-high.
Janelle

Cheryl
I hope you have a lot of fun this last year at E.H.S. Don't look in your future years in what you do Kathy

Cheryl Don't look in your future years
of living Billy

Good luck in the future and in the last year at E. H. S.
Dory J
